

PENN LANGUAGE CENTER is proud to present the 8th Annual

SAS Language Teaching Innovation Grants SHOWCASE PROGRAM

2:00 PM on Friday, May 2, 2014
Golkin Room, Houston Hall

WELCOME

Christina Frei, Penn Language Center

GRANT PROJECT PRESENTATIONS

Jacqueline Dougherty, French Studies

Strategic Reading as the Gateway to Improving Writing, Speaking and Listening Skills in Elementary French

Helen McFie-Simone, Italian Studies

Flipping the Italian 120 Classroom: Preparing Students for Better in-Class Participation...

Haewon Cho, Korean Language Program

Ji-Young Jung, Korean Language Program

Development of an Online Placement Test for the Korean Language Program – Part II

Christina Frei, German Language Program

Eleni Miltsakaki, Computer & Information Science

Mika Tsekoura, Modern Greek Language Program

Project Based Learning with Choosito!

Chantal Philippon-Daniel, French Studies
LanguageQuests for Intercultural Competence

Mercia Flannery, Portuguese Studies
Saudade: An Online Journal Created by Students of the Portuguese Language

Ji-Young Jung, Korean Language Program
Haewon Cho, Korean Language Program
Development of Multimedia Course Materials to Facilitate Beginner-Level Korean Learners' Pragmatic Competence

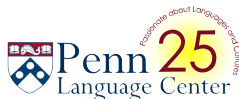

María Paredes Fernández, Hispanic Studies
Kara Moranski, Hispanic Studies
Further development of the Interactive Online Course Calendar for Accelerated Elementary Spanish (Spanish 121)

PRESENTATION of Foreign Language Certificates in Instructional Technologies and Online Learning

CELEBRATING Hiroko Sherry, Japanese Language Program

PENN LANGUAGE CENTER AWARD for Distinguished Teaching by a Language Educator to Christy Hennessey, American Sign Language Program

RECEPTION

To learn more about the SAS Language Teaching Innovation Grants, please visit PLC's website: <http://plc.sas.upenn.edu/>